Subject: Statement on the impact of COVID-19 on the business operation

INA – Industrija nafte d.d., publishes the following announcement on potential impacts of COVID-19 on its operations.

INA, as a responsible company, always regards the safety and protection of its employees and customers, as its utmost priority. Accordingly, the company has been making all the necessary preventive and protective measures to minimize any negative impact in the current situation. This includes restricting business travelling, cancelling and postponing personal meetings and introducing home office where possible, among others. The continuity of operations is not affected. No forward-looking estimate of any potential impact can be given at this point.
