

Damir Vandelić, Master of Mechanical Engineering with a long career in numerous managerial positions.

He graduated and obtained his master's degree from the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Naval Architecture in Zagreb. He gained his MBA degree from the University of Liverpool.

He started his career in Pliva d.d. and then at Interbrew. In 2004, he took over the position of Capital Investments Director of Adris Group d.d., which he successfully held until 2016. At the same time, he held the position of director of Abilie d.o.o. From 2008 he was the director of Adria Resort d.o.o. and from 2009 the director of Tvornica duhana Zagreb d.o.o. and, as president or a member, he was actively involved in the work of numerous supervisory boards of companies within Adris Group. From 2016 to 2019, he held the position of President of the Management Board of Croatia osiguranje d.d. and after that he was a member of the Management Board of Adris Group d.d.

He has been the President of the Supervisory Board of INA-Industrija nafte, d.d. since 2016. He is a member of the Supervisory Board of Croatia osiguranje d.d. and the President of the Croatian Financial Services Supervisory Agency (HANFA) Council and an expert in project portfolio management of Vangelis d.o.o.

He has been awarded the Homeland War Memorial 1990-1991.

Damir Mikuljan is a law graduate with many years of law practice.

He graduated from the Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb and began his career as a volunteer at the Zagreb County Court, then he worked as a legal trainee until June 1, 1994, when he opened his own law office in Zagreb with continued operation until today.

In 1997, he was elected a member of the Zagreb County Assembly, of which he is a member to this day. He was elected President of the Zagreb County Assembly in 2008, a position he held until April 2013 and then in the period from December 2017 to November 2019. He was a member of the Municipal Government of the Bistra Municipality from 1995 to 1997.

Mr Mikuljan has been a member of the Supervisory Board of INA-Industrija nafte, d.d.

In 2010, he acquired the title of honorary citizen of the Tirana District of the Republic of Albania.

Luka Burilović, Ph.D. is the President of the Croatian Chamber of Commerce, which function he has been holding since 2014.

After completing the postgraduate specialist study of economics and management at the Faculty of Economics in Osijek, he also completed his doctoral studies at the same faculty. Until his election as the President of the Croatian Chamber of Commerce, he was the President of the Management Board of Sladorana d.d. in Županja, before that he was Deputy President of the Management Board.

From April 2004 to February 2006, he worked as an Assistant Minister in the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Water Management. From 1996 to 2004 he was the Deputy Mayor of the Nijemci Municipality and before that the owner and director of the company Agrotehna from Lipovac.

Mr Burilović is a member of the Supervisory Board of INA-Industrija nafte, d.d.

He is a member of the Supervisory Board of the Croatian Bank for Reconstruction and Development (HBOR) and Podravka d.d. Among other functions, Mr Burilović is the President of the Croatian National Board of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of European Chambers of Commerce, a member of the Board of the Foundation of the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, the President of the University Council of the Zagreb University and a member of the Effectus University College Council.

He has been awarded the Order of Danica Hrvatska with the figure of Blaž Lorković for special merits in economics.

He has been awarded the Homeland War Memorial.